Oh, yep my hero....he also gave me a present today, it was waiting for me when I got back home....
 a cd from James Blunt, with the song 1973...I just love that song...

So, yep....my hero!!!

Hey Diana,

Thank you so much for your story and pictures.

It is really special when you are only with nick and his mom. I was with a friend when I met Nick the first time. And it is something to never forget.

Loved to hear you had a amazing time. But he it is Nick 😊 I can't imagine something else.

Love wendy

Hi girls,

yes, it was a wonderful evening. But that's all because Nick is such a lovely guy. He answered all the questions I had and he didn't stop talking himself. But because off my nerves, I think I was blabbing to much, hahaha. But Nick blabbed back like there was nothing the matter, hahaha. So that was so superduper! My stagiaire was there with me by the way, but she didn't say that much. Nick's mom said 'you don't speak that much, do you?'. But hey, it was her first time there, and first time meeting Nick. The funny part was, that he introduced himself to her 'Hi, I'm Nick'....hihihi Like she didn't know...sure she knew. We had a big laugh about that moment afterwards, while driving back to Brussels.
